

Mc Culough, George

Drawer 19a

Artists-M

41. 2009 085 02325

Artists of Abraham Lincoln portraits

George McCullough

Excerpts from newspapers and other sources

From the files of the Lincoln Financial Foundation Collection

Digitized by the Internet Archive in 2012 with funding from
State of Indiana through the Indiana State Library

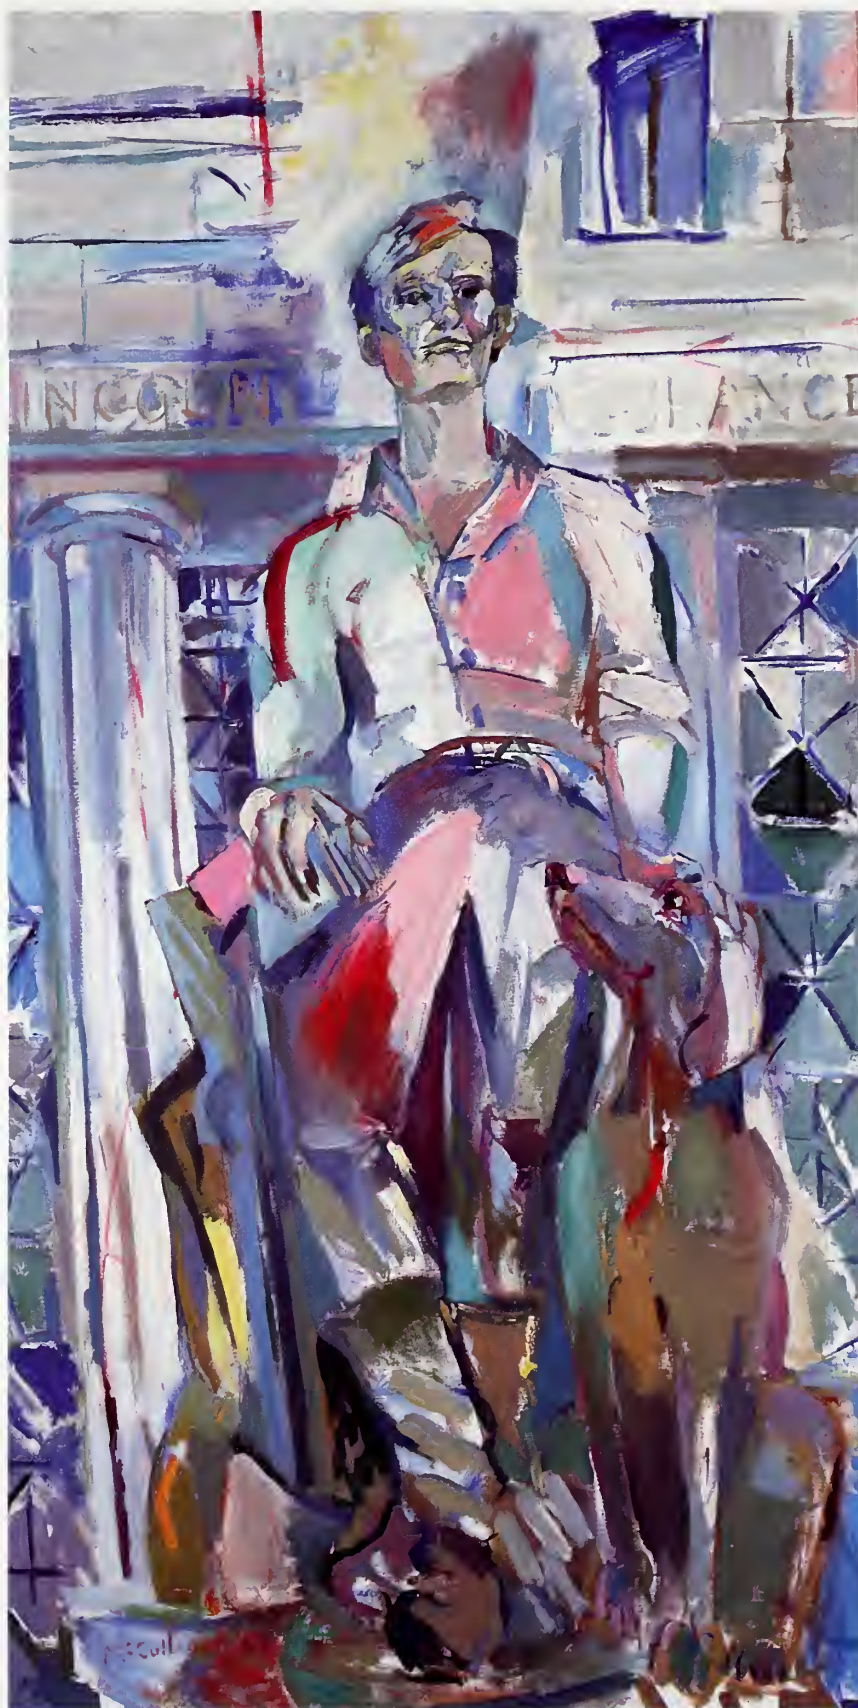

<http://archive.org/details/artisxxxxxxxxxxxxxmlin>

CONTENTS

Corporate Profile	2
Financial Highlights	3
Letter from the President	4
Implementing Strategies that Work	6
Review of Operations:
Individual Life	16
Employee Benefits	18
Property-Casualty	20
Investments	22
Other Operations	24
Statistical Information:
Stock Market and Dividend Information	24
Operating Results by Quarter	25
Financial History	26
Three-Year Summary of Operations by Business Segment	28
Management's Review of Financial Information:
Selected Financial Data	30
Review of Financial Results	30
Liquidity and Cash Flow	31
Consolidated Financial Statements:
Company Report on Financial Statements	33
Report of Independent Accountants	33
Statements of Income	34
Balance Sheets	35
Statements of Capital and Surplus	36
Statements of Cash Flows	38
Notes to Financial Statements	39
Directors and Officers	46
Corporate Information	IBC

1987 HIGHLIGHTS

- Operating Income Highest Ever
- Property-Casualty Earnings Increase Substantially
- Group Health Insurance and HMOs Produce Losses
- Reinsurance, Annuities and Corporate Pensions Report Solid Earnings Increases
- Dividend Increased for Fifth Consecutive Year

"Lincoln the Youth" by Indiana artist George McCullough was commissioned by the Lincoln National Corporate Art Committee in 1987. The piece is an interpretation of Paul Manship's statue, "Abraham Lincoln: The Hoosier Youth" which was dedicated in 1932 at Lincoln National's corporate headquarters in Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Lincoln National Corporation, a multi-line insurance holding company, is the nation's 6th largest publicly held holding company whose subsidiaries are engaged primarily in insurance (based on assets). Its operations are divided into three major business segments: individual life, employee benefits and property-casualty. These insurance products are marketed through its affiliate companies.

Individual Life

Lincoln National Life (Individual)

Independent producers and career producers representing Lincoln National Life Insurance Company operate out of 37 Regional Marketing Organizations nationwide to market individual life and disability income insurance products directly to consumers.

Security-Connecticut Life

Security-Connecticut Life Insurance Company provides individual life products, primarily universal life insurance, interest-sensitive fixed premium insurance and term life insurance through a nationwide distribution system of over 25,000 independent agents and brokers.

First Penn-Pacific

First Penn-Pacific Life Insurance Company markets universal life insurance through a network of independent agents.

American States Life

American States Life Insurance Company markets life insurance products through American States' network of property-casualty agents.

Cannon Lincoln

Cannon Lincoln Limited of Wembley, England, represents Lincoln National in the United Kingdom market. The company markets universal life insurance, unit-linked assurance, traditional whole life insurance products, pension products, income bonds and unit trusts.

Reinsurance

Lincoln National is a leading writer of life and health reinsurance. It also offers reinsurance for special risks—individual health, group life and health and financial reinsurance.

Employee Benefits

Group Life and Health

Lincoln National Life's group life and health unit distributes group life and health benefits through a specialized sales force working through agents and brokers. The unit also has established a network of managed health care programs through joint venture or ownership arrangements with health maintenance organizations and the development of preferred provider organizations. In addition, Lincoln National's national network of third party administrators offers administrative services to partially or totally self-funded employers.

Employers Health

Insurance Company

Employers Health Insurance Company markets a full line of traditional group, health maintenance organization and preferred provider organization health products to the small group market.

Annuities

The annuities unit markets and administers tax deferred annuity, deferred compensation and pension programs through sponsoring employers or organizations and to individuals.

Corporate Pensions

Corporate pensions provides investment facilities and services to sponsors of qualified retirement and savings plans.

Property-Casualty

American States Companies

Property-casualty insurance operations are managed primarily by the American States group of companies. American States provides insurance through a network of independent agents.

American Union Reinsurance Company

American Union Reinsurance Company is a property-casualty reinsurer that operates through the reinsurance brokerage market.

National Reinsurance

National Reinsurance Corporation writes property-casualty reinsurance on a direct basis, offering facultative and treaty coverage.

Mc Culough, George

Drawer 19a

Artists-M

